Will Defend Tennis Title Against McLaughlin

R. Norris Williams.

San Francisco, July 3.—R. Norris Williams, who wrestled the national tennis title from Maurice McLaughlin, the California star, a year ago, is in this city and will battle again with the California wizard on the courts of the Panama-Pacific Exposition on July 10 to 17. The Pacific States Lawn Tennis Association is supervising the meet, which will include besides Williams and McLaughlin, such stars as George M. Church, W. M. Johnstone, John Strachan, T. C. Bundy, one time champion; R. L. Murray and Clarence Griffin.

BEAVERS WIN
FOURTH GAME

Klawitter Routed in Fourth Inning and Martinoni Installed—Score 9 to 1 for Portlanders.

Portland, July 2.—Dutch Klawitter tried to pitch against Portland again today and for the second time this week took his shower bath in silence and solitude. The Beavers made a regular German holiday out of it. With Kahler pitching airtight ball and holding the Oaks always safe the Beavers riddled the Dutchman for four innings and then quit in favor of Martinoni. The score of 9 to 1 in Portland's favor tells the story. This is the fourth straight win over the Oaks and coupled with Salt Lake's victory over the Angels, conspired to hoist Portland into second place.

Klawitter's rout was the big feature of the afternoon. He simply couldn't get the ball beyond the home plate. Nine hits and a boot by Guest netted Portland six runs during Klawitter's four innings. Martinoni then was shoved out against the foe. He yielded five of Portland's fourteen hits and three of the nine runs. Kahler was picked for nine hits by the Oaks.

Middleton banged out four hits in four times at bat. The Oaks scored their lone tally in the sixth inning on Gardner's two-bagger, a scratch infield hit by Elliott and an infield double play.

There was no hogging of the hits on Portland's side. Everybody except Fred Derrick broke in with a contribution. Fisher grabbed three and Davis, Bates, Spears and Lober hung up two apiece. Bates was the chief pinch hitter of the day, scoring one in the fourth and sending two home in the sixth by a two-base swat.

TENNIS MATCHES POSTPONED.
Pittsburg, July 2.—Rain caused a postponement of all matches in the national clay court tennis championship here today. The courts were badly soaked, but an effort is being made to dry them out so that the tournament can be finished tomorrow.

R. Norris Williams of Harvard and George M. Church of Princeton were to have contested today for the singles title, but this match will be played tomorrow.

In the women's singles, Miss Mollie Bloustedt, of New York, and Mrs. George W. Wightman of Boston have qualified for the semi-finals. The former will play the winner of the match between Mrs. Bargar Wallach of Newport and Miss Martha Guthrie of Pittsburg, while Mrs. Wightman will play the winner of the match between Miss Clare Cassel of New York and Miss Myrtle McAtter of Pittsburg.

SALT LAKE IS WINNER 3 TO 1

"Lefty" Williams Hands It To Los Angeles Club—Has Fine Assistance in Field.

Los Angeles, July 2.—C. "Lefty" Williams thought it was about time to call a halt today and, after being virtually knocked out of the box yesterday, he came back and made the Angels look like a bunch of selling players, winning his game easily 3 to 1. But he had yeoman assistance.

Some of this—in fact, a whole lot of it—came via the Tennant route. Tommy pulled the star play of the game in the fourth, when, after singling and getting to third on Barbour's safe whack he slowly trotted across the plate while Scoggins and Boles were talking over the situation.

The crowd let loose a blast when it saw Tennant start, but this never feazed the two Angel luminaries who are far above paying any attention to the rabble. But, however, Pop Dillon happened to be in this rabble, and after Tennant had scored and turned around and given the Angels the "haw haw," Dillon took Scoggins out and let Johnny Williams work off part of his grudge against Blankenship.

Johnny did it all right, but the game had been lost and his good work was all for nothing. He has been promised the chance of working the full game tomorrow against his former teammates.

Salt Lake started after Scoggins in the second frame. Zacher singled, took second on Tennant's sacrifice and scored on Barbour's single. The same performance was repeated in the third by Shinn, Orr and Gedeon, respectively, and then in the fourth Tennant and Barbour did the hitting and Tommy the scoring.

The Angels seemed completely mystified by Williams' pitching, and went up to the sixth before they could do a thing with him. Then doubles by Maggert and Koerner gave Los Angeles one run and prevented a shut-out.

After Johnny Williams had relieved Scoggins in the third, Salt Lake did not get a man past second, and only made three hits off him, all scattered singles.

Volter's hitting felt clear down today, he getting no safe ones, and besides struck out twice. The reason for this was because he didn't use his two-bit bat. Today's victory puts Salt Lake in third place, while the Angels drop to fourth instead of second by reason of the Beavers' win over the Oaks.

SEALS WIN GAME
FROM VENICE

Roy Mitchell Touched Right Along Through Game—Score 5 to 0.

San Francisco, July 2.—If the Seals keep after all of Doc White's pitchers as they kept after Roy Mitchell, one-time St. Louis American leaguer, today, there's going to be nothing to the series this week. Mitchell was touchable right along the line, the final score being 5 to 0.

Fitzgerald rapped out the first hit, a drive over the center field fence, and after that the runs just kept on dropping in one by one till the quintet had been registered. Twelve hits, all told, came off the former big brush heaver, four of them being bunched in a single inning for a solitary tally. Four of the five runs were earned by the Seals, so the defeat was largely, if not entirely, a question of pitching.

Curley Brown lasted just long enough to give him credit for the Seal victory, showing a tendency in each of the first two innings to wildness. He did worse than that in the third. With two down Brown walked two and allowed a hit. Wolverton wasn't taking any chances of forcing in runs and Skelsters Fanning, duly warmed up, was sent in as the relief.

He did a good job of it, striking out Purcell and closing the incident. In the balance of the game Fanning allowed Cincinnati one hit and St. Louis won, 2 to 0. St. Louis made its tally by three successive hits and a sacrifice in the eighth. Groh applied
